

Would you like the chance to be part of a production at the New Wolsey Theatre?

We have the opportunity for four children to share the roles of Young Macduff and Fleance in the Queen's Theatre Hornchurch production of Macbeth this March!

A Queen's Theatre Hornchurch and Derby Theatre production touring to New Wolsey Theatre, Ipswich and Perth Theatre, Horsecross

Three witches on a heath have a disturbing prophecy for a victorious warrior. Macbeth will be King of Scotland. As this wicked seed is planted, daring Macbeth and his determined wife Lady Macbeth draw bloody daggers and set out on a fateful path.

But seizing the crown comes at a terrible price, as guilt grows, enemies draw close and the fight for survival hurtles towards a tragic conclusion...

We are looking for four boys to share two roles for performances at the New Wolsey Theatre:

- Two boys who look 9 years old, to share the role of Young Macduff
- Two boys who are young looking 13 year olds to share the role of Fleance, Banquo's son

There will be two children cast for each role who will alternate throughout the run.
